

The Russell County Public Library volunteer program is committed to encouraging community participation to enhance library programs and services. The Library staffs an adequate number of regular or weekly volunteers to meet needs in the collection, during special events, or for project-based assignments. When a volunteer in one of these positions resigns, the Library will actively recruit for a replacement by posting vacancies online and in the building.

When not actively recruiting, volunteer applications may still be submitted. Applications will be kept on file for one year from the date of submission and will be referred to in the event of an opening.

With questions about this application, please contact the Library at (270) 343-7323.
